

Substance Abuse Treatment & Recovery Support Services are available to those who qualify for and need help!

June 2005

ATR-I is Idaho's newest opportunity to expand choice, increase access and create more opportunities for substance abuse treatment and recovery support services. This bulletin is intended to generate your interest and commitment in accessing the substance abuse treatment and recovery support services that are available in Idaho today. We look forward to hearing from you and getting started!

Why should you access ATR-I treatment and recovery support services?

- Treatment & Recovery Support Services are an opportunity to reverse the downward spiral in the areas of your life while gaining freedom and responsibility
- It's an opportunity to choose-
  1. Healthy family
  2. Higher education
  3. Realized dreams and accomplished goals
  4. Improved health
  5. Better, secure job
  6. Improved finances
- It's an opportunity for underserved populations and areas in Idaho
- Access to payment vouchers
- Access through a single toll-free number so getting started is simple
- Web access to information resources at www.accesstorecovery.idaho.gov
- Access to various treatment levels such as residential and outpatient care as well as recovery support services such as case management, transportation, child care, transitional housing and family/marital/life skills education
- Your freedom to choose from available providers leads to a unique, personalized, dignified, and respectful recovery experience.

Consumers and clients contact BPA Care Management at 1-800-922-3406 for eligibility screening and vouchers authorizing services. In the Treasure Valley, you may call BPA Care Management directly at 208-947-4393. Care Management staff in Boise are available from 8 am to 8 pm Mountain Standard Time.